

MathWorks Data Storage Locations

MathWorks is a global company and stores data in a variety of locations to suit business needs. Most data is stored in the United States. However, through data replication, caching, and backups, data may be stored in any area where MathWorks has or its cloud providers have a physical presence. See the list of MathWorks worldwide offices.